     Moderator—Nestor Davidson, University of Colorado School of Law
     • Why Care about the Polar Bear? Economic Analysis of Environmental Law and Policy
       Lisa Heinzerling, Georgetown Law School
       How economic analysis as currently practiced slights the true value of natural resources, with particular reference to the polar bear and the future.
     • The Intersection of Environmental Law and Natural Resource Law
       Karin Sheldon, Vermont Law School
       How the values and ideologies of environmental law - a discipline that has emerged only in recent decades - are, and are not, integrated with resources law.
     • Federalism and Natural Resource Policy
       Robert Fischman, Indiana University - Bloomington
       The shifting balance between federal and state authority over natural resource management, especially public lands.
     • The Growing Influence of Tort and Property Law on Natural Resources Law
       Alexandra Klass, University of Minnesota Law School
       How the development of natural resource law and policy increasingly takes into account issues of tort and property law.

GENERAL INFORMATION: Refunds, minus a non-refundable $50 fee, will be made if written cancellation notice is received no later than June 3rd. No refunds will be issued after that time. Early registration ends, May 21, 2007. Scholarships, based on need, may be available. Contact Mark Squillace at Mark.Squillace@colorado.edu; (303) 492-1287 to apply.

TRANSPORTATION FROM THE AIRPORT (DIA): Denver International Airport (DIA) is 40 miles from the University of Colorado campus. Hourly Supershuttle run from the airport from 6:10 am to 11:10 pm. The shuttles stop at major Boulder hotels ($20 one way, $38 round trip) and at residences ($26 for the first person and $10 for each additional.) Call (303) 444-0808 for more information. In addition, RTD provides express bus services from DIA to Boulder and around Boulder and Denver. Many people find this to be the most convenient means of transportation to and from the airport. Please visit their website www.rtd-denver.com and click on sky-ride for more information.

ACCOMMODATIONS: Rooms have been blocked at discount rates at the Best Western, Homewood Suites by Hilton, and the Millennium Harvest House. Blocks will be released on May 5th. Mention the “Natural Resources Law Center” for discount. The Best Western is a 5-minute walk from the Law School, the Harvest House is a 20-minute walk, and the Hilton Homewood Suites is a 10-minute shuttle ride (provided by hotel). Visit www.bouldercoloradousa.com for more information on local lodging.
