AGENDA: The Future of Federal Wetlands Regulation After Rapanos

University of Colorado Boulder. Natural Resources Law Center

Follow this and additional works at: http://scholar.law.colorado.edu/future-of-wetlands-regulation-after-rapanos

Part of the Administrative Law Commons, Biology Commons, Courts Commons, Environmental Law Commons, Hydrology Commons, Judges Commons, Legislation Commons, Litigation Commons, Natural Resources Law Commons, Property Law and Real Estate Commons, and the Water Law Commons

Citation Information
http://scholar.law.colorado.edu/future-of-wetlands-regulation-after-rapanos/1

Reproduced with permission of the Getches-Wilkinson Center for Natural Resources, Energy, and the Environment (formerly the Natural Resources Law Center) at the University of Colorado Law School.
Save the Date for

Hot-Topic Discussion

What: The Future of Federal Wetlands Regulation after Rapanos

When: Thursday, May 10\textsuperscript{th} from 12:00 – 1:15 pm

Where: Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck Main Conference Room:
410 Seventeenth St., Suite 2200
Denver, CO 80202-4437

Who: Mark Squillace, Natural Resources Law Center
Wayne Forman and Michelle Kales, Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck

Registration fee: $10 — cash or check (made to “Natural Resources Law Center).
No credit cards

Lunch will be provided. Seating is limited to 80.

CLEs: 2

Please RSVP to: Heidi Horten at Heidi.Horton@colorado.edu, phone: 303-492-1286