

6/9/1985

- John Grant Gillard

- Narrative: Remains on death row after U.S. Court of Appeals, 6th Circuit, reversed the district court's grant of defendant's writ regarding ineffective assistance of counsel (due to a conflict of interest and cumulative error) and affirmed the denial of the remainder of defendant's writ of habeas corpus. His case remains idle while awaiting the results of DNA testing that wasn't available when Gillard went to trial. No execution date is pending.

8/5/1985

- Jerome Henderson

- Narrative: Remains on death row after defendant's petition for rehearing in the U.S. Supreme Court was denied. Defendant, who had a prior execution date of 12/5/08, was part of the lethal injection challenge. He is part of the OH Execution Protocol. No execution date is pending.

Still on death row

8/8/1985

- Robert Van Hook

- Narrative: Remains on death row after U.S. Supreme Court overturned a 6th Circuit panel that vacated his death sentence (the same court that in the previous year threw out his murder conviction) and also granted his habeas relief petition. The Court ruled that the defendant's attorneys met the constitutional minimum of competence. He is part of the OH Execution Protocol. No execution date is pending.

Still on death row

10/16/1985

- Romell Broom

- Narrative: Remains on death row despite a failed execution attempt after which defendant filed various motions in state and federal court based on the unconstitutionality of any future execution attempts (i.e. cruel and unusual punishment). All of defendant's motions were denied given the Ohio Supreme Court's decision that state law does not allow constitutional challenge of lethal injection (this solved a question regarding state law that had been posed by a federal judge). He is part of the OH Execution Protocol. No execution date is pending.

Still on death row

1/16/1986

- Arthur Tyler

- Narrative: Remains on death row. Prosecutors are requesting an execution death despite the unofficial moratorium while federal courts weigh Ohio's lethal injection policies because the defendant has exhausted all state and federal appeals and hasn't asked the court to delay the procedure. He is part of the OH Execution Protocol. No execution date is pending.

2/7/1986

- Percy Hutton

- Narrative: Remains on death row after OH Court of Appeals 8th Dist. Granted summary judgment on behalf of respondent, Judge Corrigan. No execution date is pending.

Still on death row

2/12/1986

- Mark Wayne Wiles

- Narrative: After the Ohio Parole Board recommended to Governor Kasich that clemency be denied, defendant was executed on April 18, 2012. He was part of the Oh Execution Protocol. Executed April 2012.

2/28/1986

- Danny Lee Hill

- Narrative: Remains on death row after OH Supreme Court ruled that defendant is not mentally retarded, a decision that exhausted defendant's state appeals. Defendant's appeal of his death sentence was at the federal court level when the U.S. Supreme Court ruled that it is inhumane to execute the mentally retarded, after which it was determined that he is not mentally retarded. He is part of the OH Execution Protocol. No execution date is pending.

Still on death row

4/2/1986

- Lawrence Landrum

- Narrative: Remains on death row after 6th Circuit denied defendant's claims for relief from his conviction and death sentence. A motion has been filed to set his execution date after a petition for a final appeal was denied. He is part of the OH Execution Protocol. No execution date is pending.

Still on death row

5/5/1986

- Samuel Moreland

- Narrative: Remains on death row after he filed an appeal in the 6th Circuit over the denial of his habeas petition in the federal district court. He is part of the OH Execution Protocol. No execution date is pending.

Still on death row

8/7/1986

- David Sneed

- Narrative: Remains on death row because he is part of the OH execution protocol litigation, which consolidated 87 inmates complaints about OH execution process – claiming that it is implemented in an arbitrary and capricious manner.

Still on death row

8/7/1986

- David Sneed

- Narrative: Remains on death row until the U.S. Supreme Court hears his claims of ineffective legal representation at trial. He is part of the OH Execution Protocol. No execution date is pending.

Still on death row

11/7/1986

- William Montgomery

- Narrative: Remains on death row after 6th Circuit, sitting en banc, overturned the 6th Circuit's three-member panel's decision to grant defendant new trial after the discovery of exonerating withheld evidence. U.S. Supreme Court denied defendant's writ of cert and motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis. No execution date is pending.

Still on death row

12/9/1986

- Charles Lorraine

- Narrative: Remains on death row because he is part of the OH execution protocol litigation, which consolidated 87 inmates complaints about OH execution process – claiming that it is implemented in an arbitrary and capricious manner.

Still on death row

7/29/1987

- Gregory Lott

- Narrative: Remains on death row. He was scheduled for execution in 2002 and 2004, but the procedure was delayed after his lawyers claimed he was mentally retarded. This claim was later dismissed. The U.S. Supreme Court blocked the second execution so that lower courts could review the defendant's claim that evidence was withheld.

Still on death row

9/3/1987

- Joseph Murphy

- Narrative: Remains incarcerated, but not on death row, after Gov. Kasich followed the recommendation of the OH Parole Board, which determined that defendant should be sentenced to life without parole. The board cited defendant's childhood in which he was beaten, starved, and sexually abused.

9/18/1987

- Reginald Jells

- Narrative: Remains incarcerated, but not on death row, after 6th Circuit ruled that defendant had ineffective counsel and that prosecutors withheld certain evidence that could have been favorable to the defense.

Still on death row

10/2/1987

- Warren Waddy

- Narrative: Remains on death row after OH Court of Appeals 10th Dist. reversed denied his motion for post-conviction relief, which alleged he was mentally retarded and, thus, that he could not be sentenced to death. He is part of the OH Execution Protocol.

- Narrative: Remains on death row due to deliberation by the Magistrate Judge about the inmate's request for habeas relief and the warden's response to those objections. He is part of the OH Execution Protocol. No execution date is pending.

Still on death row

1/24/1994

-Warren Hennes

- Narrative: Remains on death row. While granted a certificate of appealability in part, his rehearing and rehearing en banc were denied.

Still on death row

5/13/1994

- Thomas Keenan

- Narrative: Remains on death row despite that the U.S. District Court, N.D. Ohio, Western Division granted his petition for writ of habeas corpus. As such, the court ordered that the respondent either: 1) set aside defendant's conviction for aggravated murder and death sentence; or 2) conduct another trial within 180 days from the effective date of the order – April 24, 2012. No execution date is pending.

-Update: Freed after judge dismissed murder charge against him. September 2012.

11/21/1994

- Harry Mitts, Jr.

- Narrative: Remains on death row after U.S. Supreme Court reversed U.S. Court of Appeals for the 6th Dist., which had vacated the prisoner's death sentence. The Supreme Court reversed upon holding that penalty phase instructions do not improperly influence the jury to impose death sentence. He is part of the OH Execution Protocol. No execution date is pending.

Still on death row

12/14/1994

- Lee E. Moore, Jr.

- Narrative: Remains on death row after filing an appeal in the Sixth Circuit over the denial of his habeas petition in the U.S. District Court, S.D. Ohio, Western Division. No execution date is pending.

Still on death row

12/29/1994

- Michael Goodwin

- Narrative: Remains incarcerated, but not on death row, after the 6th Circuit vacated his death sentence, finding that the jury should have heard mitigating evidence about his mental issues, childhood abuse, and chaotic upbringing and also finding that the defendant had ineffective representation. No execution date is pending due to court throwing out death sentence.

3/2/1995

- Frederick Treesh

- Narrative: Remains on death row after the U.S. Court of Appeals, 6th Circuit, affirmed the trial court's denial of defendant's petition for federal habeas corpus relief. He is part of the OH Execution Protocol. No execution date is pending.

Still on death row

11/22/1995

- Archie J. Dixon

- Narrative: Archie Dixon appears to remain in HC proceedings. He was granted relief under HC and then that was reversed and he appealed again.

Still on death row

3/5/1996

- Carlos Sanders

- Narrative: Remains on death row because he is part of the OH execution protocol litigation, which consolidated 87 inmates complaints about OH execution process – claiming that it is implemented in an arbitrary and capricious manner

Still on death row

1/9/1997

- Elwood "Butch" Jones

- Narrative: using Westlaw Next I found that Elwood Jones has had 181 entries into docket proceedings and the last substantive issue occurred in June (see above). From looking into pacer and doing some more general searches it seems that nothing has taken place since then. He seems to remain on death row due to continued habeas proceedings after their appeal.

Still on death row

4/1/1998

- Sean Carter

- Narrative: Remains on death row because he is part of the OH execution protocol litigation, which consolidated 87 inmates complaints about OH execution process – claiming that it is implemented in an arbitrary and capricious manner.
